Psalm 73:26 "For my flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever."

Dear Friends,

A couple of months ago I sent you a letter telling you of my invitation to teach English to the faculty and students at Blas Pascal, a Christian junior/senior high school in Merida, Yucatan, Mexico. A number of you responded to my request for prayer and financial support, and I have already sent you thank-you notes expressing my appreciation.

This letter is to inform you that I have been officially accepted by Presbyterian Evangelistic Fellowship (PEF) and will be formally commissioned during their annual conference in July. My house will be on the market by May 2. How fast it sells and how quickly I can raise support will determine when I actually leave for Mexico. At present, I am thinking in terms of moving in January or February of 2008.

The Mexicans are already making plans for me that include a place to live, a possible roommate, transportation, and language study.

If you have already responded to my first letter indicating a willingness to pray for me and/ or contribute to my support, you may now do so officially by filling out the form below and mailing it in the self addressed envelope provided. I understand that some have been waiting to respond until they received word of my official acceptance and support response. This letter is that official notice. PEF is nonprofit, and all gifts are tax deductible. As of May 7, combining the pledges of one-time support with monthly support pledges, about one-third of my total support is in place.

Even if you cannot support me financially, please indicate that you will support me in prayer so that I can include you in any official mailings and/or email updates. Please know that I do indeed covet your prayers.

Sincerely in Christ

Leslie Fortier
